

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

ST PETER'S PROJECT

PLYMOUTH MUSIC ACCORD (PMA) works to help youth music education in Plymouth. We've been doing it for over 30 years, and helped many to learn to play or to move on into a career in music. Much of what we now do – arrange group tuition, provide opportunities for children to play or experience live music – used to be provided by local government. Alas, this is no longer the case, and grants from funders to help are hard to access for a city with most children not catered for by the funders.

Currently PMA is funding choirs, instrumental tuition from brass to violins, opportunities to hear concerts or perform at a high level, in schools all over Plymouth. For example, we have a brass ensemble and a saxophone group at Lipson Co-operative Academy. Each costs us £1,000 a year, taught in both cases by former Royal Marine musicians. As normality returned after Covid, so has the number of opportunities to support groups like this.

So we are asking you to help. Support us by donating, by becoming a member, or help us in raising money for individual projects. We'll keep you informed about individual groups. We'll invite you to our annual concert, and also share information about what our member organisations are doing.

Every month we send an email to all our members listing the concerts by our member organisations during the next three months. These include most of the orchestras, choirs, chamber groups and classical promoters in the area. To donate or join, fill in the form overleaf or the online application form.
